

Group picture of School help receiving children

By the grace of the Lord this year we are able to help school help to 75 Poor pastors children. through yours help since 2008 onwards we are helping the school help and encouraging them to study well in english medium school, make them to feel their responsibility to study well and to bring good name to the community. all the pastors are sending you greetings.

Group picture of school help receiving children and the pastors

